2. Reason

The Company regards the stable return of profits to shareholders as one of the important management priorities, and our basic policy is to actively pay stable dividends and flexibly purchase treasury shares, while comprehensively considering financial performance, investment plans, and the business environment. Based on our comprehensive examination of our shareholder return policy, we have decided to increase the year-end dividend for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024 from the previous forecast by 15 yen per share to 45 yen per share. As a result, the annual dividend, which includes the interim dividend, will be 70 yen per share, 15 yen more than stated in the previous forecast.
